Construction Inspection / Plan Review Services and Fees as of January 1, 2019

Plan Review

On January 1, 2019, plan review hourly fees are increasing to $282 per hour to better align fees with current service costs including the addition of a new plan review position. The additional position is being added to help reduce turnaround times and better meet customer service expectations. The fees also include a surcharge to partially offset the cost of replacing aging technology systems in the Fire Prevention Division over the next five to six years. Plan review fees were last increased January 1, 2017.

Construction Inspections
